3. (Confidential - JMM) After being informed by the Director of a phone conversation he had just had with Senator Stuart Symington, I called Senator Symington to say we would be glad to arrange for [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to meet with Richard Moose, of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, to discuss [REDACTED]

I explained to Moose that we had been unable to locate a study on the subject of [REDACTED] dated May 1971 requested by Kathy Nelson, of Symington's staff, but since [REDACTED] would be meeting with Moose to discuss the subject it might be helpful if Kathy Nelson, who was interested in the problem, might also be included. Moose said this was entirely acceptable. He added that he had put her on the trail of the study which he had learned of from a member of the NSC staff who told him the study had been prepared by [REDACTED]
